

Business & Corporate Membership

The Admiral Nimitz Foundation's business and corporate membership program offers a variety of benefits tailored to the needs of organizations of all sizes from our local nonprofit partners to multi-national corporations.

Support The Admiral Nimitz Foundation as a premiere business or corporate partner and give your employees and their families access to the epic story of WWII in the Pacific.

ABOUT THE ADMIRAL NIMITZ FOUNDATION

OUR VISION

To provide national leadership in articulating the history and lessons learned from the Pacific-Asiatic Theater of Operations during World War II and to offer educational platforms for their application to current and future national security issues. To continue to preserve the legacy of Fleet Admiral Chester W. Nimitz and the men and women who served in this theater of operations. And, to facilitate programs that honor and support all veterans, past and present.

OUR MISSION

In an agreement with the Texas Historical Commission, the Admiral Nimitz Foundation manages and provides financial support to the National Museum of the Pacific War in order to:

- Preserve and exhibit the material history of Fleet Admiral Chester W. Nimitz
- Preserve and exhibit the material history of the war in the Pacific-Asiatic Theater during World War II
- Create and participate in programs that honor all veterans past and present, and programs that provide strategic insights into national security issues affecting our country
- Support education concerning the Pacific-Asiatic Theater during World War II
